You are a member of a Travel club. You received this e-mail from the club.

Dear Member,

We are writing to tell you that the famous travel writer Mr David Price will unfortunately not be able to attend our next club meeting. Although Mr Price will not be there to sign copies of his new book Around The World In Eighty Ways, members of the club will be able to buy a copy at the price of twenty five pounds. If you would like to reserve a copy of the book, please contact the club secretary.

Write an e-mail to your friend. Write about your feelings and what you think the club should do about the situation.

Write about 50 words. You have 10 minutes.

Write an e-mail to the president of the club. Write about your feelings and what you think the club should do about the situation.

Write 120-150 words. You have 20 minutes.

Dear President,

Hope this message finds you fine. I am writing this letter to let you inform regarding our next club meeting plan. This is very unfortunate to learn that Mr. Price is not coming to our upcoming club meeting. However, it is great news for us that we were going to get his famous book at 25 pounds. I have some plan regarding our upcoming club meeting that I would like to share with you.

It would be great for club members if we manage a video message from Mr. Price which we will broadcast during our club meeting. In addition, we might invite a notable traveler of Bangladesh, like MA Muhith who climbed the Mount Everest a few years ago as it serves to motivate our club members also helps to grow members. In addition, we might launch a free health campaign for unprivileged people as I think we have some responsibility as a good citizen.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Best Regards,
Hasan Mojumder
